PRESIDING JUDGE'S
STANDING PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION AND ORDER IN DIVORCE CASES WITH CHILDREN
AND CHILD CUSTODY CASES

I. JUDICIAL ASSIGNMENT. Your case has been assigned to Judge: _____
and referred to Master _____. Per Alaska Civil Rule 65(e), a Standing Preliminary Injunction and Order is issued as follows:

- II. INJUNCTION. Subject to future court orders issued in this case, all parties in this action must not:
1. Remove any child who is the subject of this action from the State of Alaska without the written consent of the other party or a court order authorizing the travel;
 2. Dispose of, encumber, or transfer any marital property without the written consent of the other party, except reasonably using funds for the parties' expenses or for the personal and necessary expense of the children;
 3. Threaten, harass or harm the other party; and
 4. Distribute or share any confidential records, including but not limited to records from the Office of Children Services, obtained from the Office of the Child Custody Investigator except to the party, the party's attorney, and a retained expert.

III. IMMEDIATE FILING OF INFORMATION. (i) Each party must immediately file a Child Support Affidavit and verifying income information (paystubs and last year's tax return). See Civil Rule 90.3. (ii) With the first pleading or affidavit filed, each party must state whether the party knows of any proceeding or orders that could affect the current case including domestic violence actions, protective orders, child in need of aid proceedings, or adoptions and state the case number and the nature of the proceeding.

IV. ORDER FOR MANDATORY PARENT EDUCATION IN UNCONTESTED CASES:
Each parent in a case involving uncontested custody and uncontested visitation are required to complete one of the following mandatory parent education requirements:

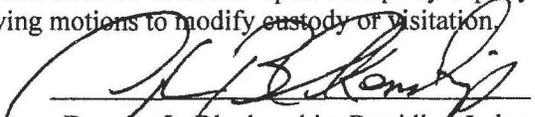

1. View a 50 minute video entitled "Listen to the Children." This video may be viewed at the Fairbanks Courthouse, Jury Assembly Room, 101 Lacey Street, Fairbanks, Alaska on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 3:00 p.m.; OR
2. Complete the on-line internet class entitled "Children in the Middle". Information about this class can be obtained from the Clerks' Office at 101 Lacey Street, Fairbanks, Alaska.

V. ORDER FOR MANDATORY CUSTODY CLASSES IN CONTESTED CASES: Each parent in a case involving contested custody or contested visitation shall attend the workshop "Helping Your Child Through A Custody Dispute," available through the Fairbanks Child Custody Investigator's Office at 452-9255. Each parent must complete the four-week workshop within 90 days of service of this order. Please call the above-listed telephone number as soon as possible in order to reserve a space to ensure compliance with this order.

VI. SCOPE AND SERVICE. This order is issued in the best interest of children whose parents may be in visitation and custody disputes either now or in the future so that the parents can learn how to assist children during this difficult period in their lives. This Injunction shall be effective upon receipt by a party or their attorney. This Injunction does not apply to cases involving motions to modify custody or visitation.

Dated: June 22, 2011

Attorney for Plaintiff certifies that a copy of this order has been served on the Plaintiff and a copy of this order will be served on the Defendant with the complaint and summons.
