I. JUDICIAL ASSIGNMENT. Your case has been assigned to Judge: _____
and referred to Master: _____. Per Alaska Civil Rule 65(e), a Standing Preliminary Injunction and Order is issued as follows:

II. INJUNCTION: All parties in this action are restrained from:

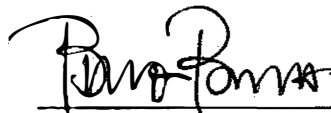

1. Disposing of, encumbering, or transferring any marital property without the written consent of the other.
2. Threatening, harassing, or harming the other party.

III. TIMING OF TRIAL DATE SETTING CONFERENCE. Until the parties have certified in writing that initial disclosures under Civil Rule 26.1(b) have been completed, the court shall not hold a hearing to set a trial date in the matter. An initial disclosure form can be located at <https://courts.alaska.gov/shc/family/docs/shc-1010n.pdf>.

IV. TEMPORARY ORDERS HEARINGS. If either party moves the court for a temporary orders hearing, such a hearing shall be set for no more than two (2) hours. This time may be lengthened for good cause shown. The superior court may, in its discretion, refer interim orders issues to a standing master.

V. SCOPE AND SERVICE. This Injunction shall be effective upon receipt by a party or their attorney and shall be served on the Defendant with the complaint and summons.

Dated: 3/27/25

Brent E. Bennett, Presiding Judge
