ORDER

It has come to the attention of the Court that there are approximately 5,000 Forcible Entry and Detainer (FED) cases pending for more than one year without any proceedings having been taken, and further, the possibility of locating a good address for the named parties is remote.

It is hereby ordered that the requirements for sending notice pursuant to Civil Rule 41(e) is waived for all FED cases pending for more than one year without any proceeding from the date shown below. These cases may be closed without further order of the Court. This dismissal is without prejudice.

DATED at Anchorage, Alaska this 31 day of July, 1989.
