

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF ALASKA
ORDER NO. 1876

Amending Appellate Rule 502.1(a)(1) concerning appellate filing locations.

IT IS ORDERED:

Appellate Rule 502.1(a)(1) is amended to read as follows:

Rule 502.1. Filing and Distribution of Documents.

(a) Filing with the Court. Documents may be filed in the appellate courts either

(1) by delivering them to the office of the clerk of the appellate courts in Anchorage; or

(2) by mailing them to: Clerk of the Appellate Courts, 303 K Street, Anchorage, Alaska 99501; or

(3) by electronic mail as permitted by administrative order of the chief justice or chief judge of the court concerned.

If a document is filed by mailing, and if the date of mailing is shown by a postmark affixed by the United States Postal Service or by other proof from the Postal Service, the date of filing will be deemed to be the date of mailing. If the document is mailed but it is postmarked by any other means (such as a private postage meter, the internet, or a Postal Service self-service kiosk), the document will be deemed filed on the date of its receipt by the clerk's office.
