IT IS ORDERED:

Child in Need of Aid Rule 15(f)(2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) If the court approves the child's removal, the court shall make the inquiry and findings required by CINA Rule 10.1. A finding that the Department has failed to make reasonable efforts, or, in cases involving an Indian child, that the requirements of 25 U.S.C. §§ 1912(d) or 1915(b) have not been met, is not in itself a ground for returning the child to the home and does not affect the court's ability to enter an adjudication order and extend temporary custody pending disposition~~adjudication~~.
