

THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF ALASKA

ORDER NO. 339

Amending Appellate
Rule 19(b).

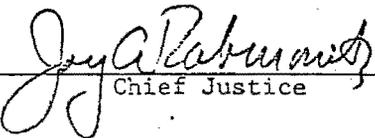

IT IS ORDERED:

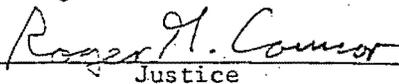

Rule 19(b) of the Rules of Appellate Procedure is amended to read as follows:

(b) Time for Taking Appeal. An appeal by a defendant may be taken within 30 days after entry of the judgment in accordance with Criminal Rule 32(b). If a motion for a new trial or an arrest of judgment or a motion for reduction, correction, or suspension of sentence pursuant to Criminal Rule 35 has been made within the 30-day period, an appeal from a judgment of conviction may be entered within 30 days after entry of the order deciding the motion. When after trial a court imposes sentence upon a defendant not represented by counsel, the defendant shall be advised of his right to appeal and if he so requests, the clerk shall prepare and file forthwith a notice of appeal on behalf of the defendant. An appeal by the state when authorized by law may be taken within 30 days after entry of the judgment or order appealed from.
