

THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF ALASKA

ORDER NO. 346

Amending Alaska Bar
Rule 6, Relating to Admission to the Bar.

IT IS ORDERED:

Rule 6, Alaska Bar Rules, is amended to read:

Rule 6. Certificate of Admission: Membership Registration and Fees.

Section 1. An applicant receiving notice that he has successfully passed the bar examination prescribed by the Board pursuant to Rule 4 hereof and has in other respects been determined eligible shall within one year file an Alaska Bar Association registration card in the form provided by the Board; certify under oath that he is domiciled in the State of Alaska; and pay prorated active membership fees for the balance of the calendar year in which he is admitted computed from the date of payment.

Section 2. An applicant who fails to comply with the provisions of Section 1 of this Rule shall not be eligible for certification to the Supreme Court for admission and shall be deemed to have abandoned his application.

Section 3. Upon receiving certification of the eligibility of an applicant the Supreme Court may enter an order admitting the applicant as an attorney at law in all the courts of the state and to membership in the Alaska Bar Association. Each applicant ordered admitted to the practice of law shall take the following oath before the Supreme Court or a justice thereof:

I do affirm:

I will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Alaska;

I will maintain the respect due to courts of justice and judicial officers;

I will not counsel or maintain any proceedings which shall appear to me to be taken in bad faith or any defense except such as I believe to be honestly debatable under the law of the land;

I will employ for the purpose of maintaining the causes confided to me such means only as are consistent with truth and honor, and will never seek to mislead the judge or jury by an artifice or false statement of fact or law;

I will maintain the confidence and preserve inviolate the secrets of my client, and will accept no compensation in connection with his business except from him or with his knowledge or approval;

I will be candid, fair, and courteous before the court and with other attorneys, and advance no fact prejudicial to the honor or reputation of a party or witness, unless required by the justice of the cause with which I am charged;

I will strive to uphold the honor and to maintain the dignity of the profession and to improve not only the law but the administration of justice.

A certificate of admission shall thereupon be issued to the applicant by the clerk of the court.
