

Amending Subsections (b) and
(c) of Section 3, Rule 44, Alaska Bar Rules, Relating to Eligibility for Legal Intern Permits.

IT IS ORDERED:

Subsections (b) and (c) of Section 3, Rule 44, Alaska Bar Rules, are amended to read:

(b) Be a student who:

(1) Is duly enrolled in a law school which was accredited or approved by the Council of Legal Education of the American Bar Association or the Association of American Law Schools when the applicant entered, or is enrolled in a law school in which the principles of English common law are taught but which is located outside the United States and beyond the jurisdiction of the American Bar Association and the Association of American Law Schools, provided that the foreign law school in which he or she is enrolled meets the American Bar Association Council of Legal Education Standards for approval;

(2) Has successfully completed at least one-half of the course work required for a law degree;

(3) Has filed with the application a certificate from the dean or other chief administrative officer of his or her law school, stating that he or she meets the requirements as set forth in subsections (b)(1) and (b)(2); or

(c) Be a law school graduate who:

(1) Has graduated from a law school which was accredited or approved by the Council of Legal Education of the American Bar Association or the Association of American Law Schools when the applicant entered or graduated, or has graduated from a law school in which the principles of English common law are taught but which is located outside the United States and beyond the jurisdiction of the American Bar Association and the Association of American Law Schools, provided that the foreign law school from which he or she has graduated meets the American Bar Association Council of Legal Education Standards for approval;

(2) Has never failed a bar examination administered by any state of the United States, or the District of Columbia, or, despite failure, has subsequently passed such a bar examination; and

(3) Has filed with the Executive Director a certificate from the dean or other chief administrative officer of his or her law school which states that the legal intern applicant meets the requirements set forth in subsection (c)(1), and either

(i) a personal affidavit stating that he or she never failed a bar examination, as set forth in subsection (c)(2), or

(ii) a certificate from the Supreme Court of the state in which, subsequent to failure, a bar examination was passed.
