

IN THE SUPREME COURT FOR THE STATE OF ALASKA

ORDER NO. 601

Relating to the effective date of Administrative Rule 35, Electronic
Recording Equipment

IT IS ORDERED:

Those portions of Administrative Rule 35 which require operation of electronic recording equipment only by a certified operator as defined in paragraph (b) of the rule are suspended until further order of the court.

All other portions of the rule, including the responsibility of the judicial officer to require electronic recording equipment operation in such manner and under such conditions as to insure the production of a clear and completely understandable record of all proceedings, remain in effect.
