

IN THE SUPREME COURT FOR THE STATE OF ALASKA

ORDER NO. 771

Staying Bar Rule 31(b)(4)

IT IS ORDERED:

The application of the language in Bar Rule 31(b)(4) which is bracketed below is stayed until further order of the court:

(4) render an overall accounting of the practice of the unavailable attorney.

The order will further provide for reasonable compensation to be paid to the trustee counsel by the estate of the unavailable attorney [or by the Court in the event that the estate of the unavailable attorney is insufficient to cover the costs of compensation].

Thus, work done on appointments made after the effective date of this order will not be compensated by the Alaska Court System.
